- If you are a senior who needs food brought to your home, call us.
- If the food service at your health care center or senior center has been interrupted, call us.
- If your school district is unsure about how your students, families and teachers will eat, call us.
- If you want to ensure your employees have access to healthy meals, call us.
- If you are an individual struggling with access to food during this time, please call us.
- If you need 10 meals or 10,000 meals, call us.

- Healthy, affordable grab and go meals are available for purchase at 7 Stores that remain open across LA County. These sites offer curbside pick up or delivery within a 3 mile radius, see map below
 - Free meals in Stores: Free "Pay It Forward" meals may be available at our stores. Call ahead and they can put it aside for you
 - In Watts and Compton, we accept CalFresh/EBT through Restaurant Meals Program (RMP) for curbside pick up. RMP serves seniors, homeless and those with disabilities
 - Waived delivery fees - can use the code ETDELIVERY to waive the delivery fee on a Subscription Box or one-time order of $25 or more
 - Non-profit pricing - We are willing to work with nonprofits, service agencies and government around discounted meal pricing for groups. Call the helpline for more info
 - Free food distribution - We are currently working with our non-profit partners to establish a more regular distribution route for donated surplus meals. When we have this, we will share it widely
